

Polly At Waveland

'Tis one of those rare near perfect days that once more leads your reporter to wonder how anyone could possibly want to live anywhere else. An equatorial habitat could be a bit more comfortable at times, possibly, but there's something unnatural and a little tiring about lush tropical vegetation—as for northerly climes, snow is undeniably beautiful freshly fallen, but it's also cold, wet and frankly unattractive as it melts and ugly patches of bare earth push through—here on the Coast it's quite impossible to find even an unattended, unattended lot that doesn't possess some beauty—brilliant wind washed skies are reflected in the deep blue of wild lilytium and even a cloudy day would be brightened by the golden glow of wild sunflowers mingling with goldenrod—in fact, come to think of it, much too nice a day to be facing the cold reality of the necessity of filling this page with doling here and here abouts—we'd frankly rather be fishing so we'll do the next best thing and write about it—

On Sports Front

Pat Garcia, constable and fisherman of note, reports absolutely no luck off the seawall, but the railroad trestle anglers tell a different story. Horace Farr caught 38 beautiful speck Monday, Al Vetter, Mrs. Leon Doerflin and the faithful Blazes, Rita and Eddie, continue to bring home the bacon, except that it's fish of course, day after day. Mrs. Doerflin picked up 18 blue crabs last Friday.

As for hunting, rabbits are still fairly plentiful and those searchers of that gourmet delicacy, frog legs are finding them numerous along Pearl River!

Lots of Entertainment

Sort of a large weekend entertainment—the annual Harvest Ball at the Legion Hall attracted revellers from near and far. Among those dancing to the Cavaliers toe tapping rhythms were the Henry Cappeones, the John Rutherforders, Anna and Gilbert Gaynor, Martin and Russell Elliott, Phil and Jimmy Lagasse, Dot and Merlin Markel and Betty and Gordon Romanoff. The crowning of Leonard Ring as king and Mrs. D. W. North as queen was the climax of a really enjoyable evening for all who attended. The reigning royalty were crowned with crown-man crowns of hair and given sequin studded clubs as scepters. Attending their royal highnesses in the grand march were maids, Anna Gaynor, Lena Cuevas, Mrs. John Wilkerson, Mrs. H. C. Thomas, Mrs. John Rutherford and Mrs. Al Vetter, dukes included Jay Lagasse, Jr., Chester Favre, Clarence Schindler, Dan Ramelli, Lucien Raymond and Joe Compretta—each received a small novelty gift colorfully wrapped.

Saturday night's steak dinner at PGI Golf Club also drew a sizeable crowd—some of the "regulars" enjoying this get-together were Zelma and Ken Walrmann, Scott and Wendell Watson, Rub and Matt Ballatin and Kate and Roy Sox.

The addition (and this is the official title as closely as we have been able to ascertain), to Christ Episcopal Day School was displayed to the general public for the first time at an open house Sunday afternoon. Eddie Clark was the most capable chairman of the affair. Helene Boyd, P-TA prexy, was on hand to welcome visitors as were Edna Yarborough and other room mothers. Over 200 guests sipped tea, ate and admired the premises.

Welcome to Waveland to Pat and Scott Taylor who recently purchased a summer home on the corner of East and Favre Streets. Dottie and Louis Gralvete were their weekend guests. Dottie is Louise Wymer's sister and Louise and Joe entertained the group at their Favre Lane home Saturday night.

More out-of-town guests—Lt. and Mrs. Dorsett White and two children of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. White, sr., of Bogalusa, La. weekendend in Lakeshore as did Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ledner and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ladner, all of Beaumont, Texas.

Mr. A. Bosch, whom we see much too seldom, also weekendend in our town. Speaking of "almost strangers in our midst" we've been missing hearing from several of our little pals, to wit—Hazel, (Mrs. Charles) Dublin, the Armand Sernas crew, Julia and Clarence Duvelien, Mary and Mac McCall, the Harry Blankes—and several other of our formerly faithful assistant reporters—where are you????

Greetings and Such

A very happy birthday to Jim Mayfield who observed his (won't reveal—we're dangerously close to the same age) on Saturday, Oct. 14.—He, Dot and the boys took in the Tulane game and dined out in way of celebration.

Chip Blanchard entertained a group of friends at a pirate party—very novel as the guests were costumed and decorated appropriately when he became mine on Saturday also. A gay pink candy laden pinata was the piece de resistance and treasure hunts were included in the games.

Babylove and Douglas Bourgeois and Louise and Harry Lynch due to observe joint anniversaries Friday the 20th—it'll be number 40 for Babylove and Douglas and the 14th for the Lynches.

Time to check up on the new crop of little ones. . . Ruth Ellen and Ranger Moran welcomed their third son last Tuesday—Billy Breland reports that he and Noleen's new offspring is thriving—and we had better see how our bootee knitters are faring—Marilyn (Mrs. Kenny) Fayard, Claire (Mrs. Otto) Bourgeois and Lorraine (Mrs. Charlie) Poolson are among the expectant ones—they are all apparently feeling fine.

Get Well Wishes

Sorry to hear that Dick Westayer suffered another attack Sunday night, hope he's better as we're pressing. Alphonse Dorn is improving, having been released from Hancock General Saturday, and we'll long distance our greetings to Louis Bircher—Mrs. Bircher is the sister-in-law of Ed Tucker, Aunt of Isobel Villere and Eunice Favre—he was seriously injured last Monday when he fell from a boiler he was inspecting and a cart handle penetrated his chest on the left side, came through his shoulder, fractured his jaw and cut his ear. He'll be hospitalized for several months but greets all visitors cheerfully. Betty and Donald Dorn drove into the big city to visit him and Isobel Villere dropped in on him over the weekend.

Get well in a hurry to W. A. Bellhouse who was slated to undergo eye surgery Tuesday.

Monday night's circus attracted young and old alike—some of those eating cotton candy and eyeing the acts were Dot and Jim Mayfield, the Bordages clan with the exception of Wilfred who was feeling a little under par, Marie and Bert Steffel, Dot and Merlin Markel, and many, many more. Seen looking around the premises before the matinee performance were Marcelle (Mrs. Charles) Bradley, Jerome Corcoran and those staunch minions of the local law, Sheriff Price, Constable Garcia and J. P. Nellius Rhodes.

Bay Side

Capt. J. P. Clark is off once more—this time his destination Venezuela. The Kergatens, Dot and Horace, spent last Friday night in the Crescent. Good to see Mary Staehle looking so well these days, she seems to have completely recovered from her recent operation. More good news—Albert came through surgery unscathed on his broken leg last Wednesday with flying colors. He's still a patient in Gulfport hospital. Must make a slight MIRACLED MOODS—These were among prize winners in Bay-Waveland Garden Club's annual hat show last Thursday at the Gordon Center. From left are Madamas Waldo Odis, R. W. Riggs, Frank Manning, H. A. Thompson and H. D. Finley.

Mrs. Hicks Captures Best Entry in Annual Hat Show

Ingenuity prevailed as Bay-Waveland Garden Club members displayed their own creations at the annual hat show last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. H. J. Hicks capturing the prize for the best chapeau entered.

Sweepstakes winner in the event, theme of which was Mirrored Moods, was Mrs. R. W. Riggs.

Mrs. P. E. Porter captured first place in Class I, To Market, with a banana laden straw bonnet. Mrs. Riggs was second.

Residents will not miss their daily dust baths and it's a most convenient shortcut between the two thoroughfares.

Following the bouquet, let's toss in a brickbat in the way of a complaint—All entrances (and exits) to our fair town are still in frankly miserable condition, axle breaking holes make driving on Waveland and Nicholson Avenues hazardous and Lakeshore Road is not one bit better.

On the Avenue

Col. and Mrs. Marcel Gillis, such a handsome couple beautifully attired for a party, Mrs. Paul Kammer of the bubbling personality, Jan Brammeyer, taking care of a bit of Postoffice business, Mrs. Herbert Ratenburg out for her daily stroll, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams proudly showing off their visiting grandchildren and Fred Bourgeois looking a bit sad as he's been much too busy to catch up on his fishing.

Animal Notes

Whitey Blanchard, Gerri and Sam's white German shepherd, passed away last week in a Biloxi animal hospital—complications from injuries suffered when he was struck on Coleman Avenue Friday a week ago.

Ad Fran Walters to the list of "new" car owners.

A reluctant and slightly belated farewell to Dr. Robert McKinley. He departed Monday night for Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, where he'll be stationed as a member of the Army Medical Corps—he was on the reserve list prior to his call. Mrs. McKinley and the children plan to join him in Texas at a future date.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY—Bold, fat quail which must possess built-in radar warnings, they can be seen beside the road almost anywhere until hunting season opens. . . then they become scarcer than proverbial hens' teeth, the graceful actions of shrimpers as they toss many mud nets from the seawall and the little crunchy, rustling sounds of small animals scurrying through the leaves as they indulge in their nocturnal pursuits.

Mrs. Hill, pilgrimage chairman, reported plans for the 1962 spring pilgrimage were completed.

Blue Jeans Club Plans Yule Fete

The Blue Jeans Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Brown on Clermont Blvd. Monday.

The president, Mrs. Frank Simmons, gave the devotional and plans for the Christmas party were discussed with location to be selected next month.

Winners of ribbons in various divisions were Mrs. J. Saleeby, cultivated and wild; Mrs. Ola Moran, dried; Mrs. Simmons, horticulture; Mrs. Brown, potted plant, and Mrs. F. O. McCoy the entrance prize. Mrs. L. P. Rousseau won in miniature class.

Local Entries Win at Fair

Mrs. Jeanne Williams won a blue ribbon with her reed basket tray in the home demonstration club display judging at the State Fair in Jackson last week.

Mrs. Henry Stiller of the Waveland HD club and Mrs. C. E. Mitchell of Flaming won red ribbons on their canned goods. Entries of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Louis Moreau, both of the Bay St. Louis club, in the national cotton bag sewing contest were prominently displayed.

Attending the fair last Tuesday were Madamas Ivan Bradford, Pat Rutherford, Leo Tacon, Miami Lux, Williams and Moreau. They stopped at Hattiesburg en route home to visit Mrs. Moreau's daughter, Margaret, a student at Mississippi Southern College there.

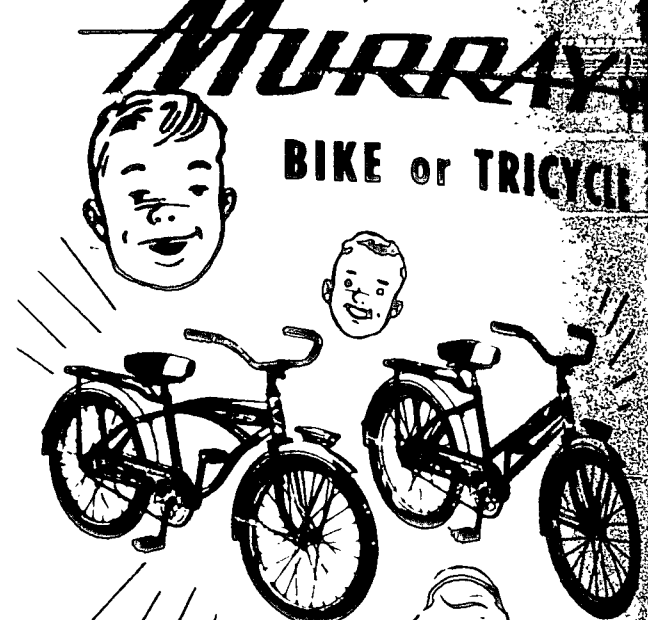

Gainesville HD Club Meets at Logtown

Mrs. Ruby Bennett of Logtown was hostess for a meeting of the Gainesville Home Demonstration Club Monday.

Mrs. Cora Patch presided and Mrs. Joseph Hughes, home agent, gave the demonstration on truth with older people. Mrs. Evelyn Jones and Mrs. Salvadoro Gerard assisted with the program.

Good Citizens

He serves the best, who serves his country best.

The Mind

Hon. Sam Rayburn will probably not again reign over the United States House of Representatives as he has for so many years. Such will be a loss to our country. Also, his impending death, when it occurs, will occasion many tributes to his record, all deserved.

Our almost young president, John F. Kennedy, will someday have to bow to the inevitable and cease his mortal existence, and, irrespective of one's political views, everyone should accord him respect and admiration for what he has accomplished.

In our own county, men of financial, political or other influence have tolled their time and, deservedly, those of us who remain pay tribute to their deeds and accomplishments.

One individual we so often fail to recognize, even after his loss to us, is the truly good citizen—the real American. He can be the man who fought in the front ranks, literally, for his country, who even spent months in a concentration camp as a result. He is the man willing to give of his time and energy to campaign for political office, play soft-ball and serve his church. He can be the man who dedicates his life to teaching life's values and to giving our youth not only what's in the books but what is in life through his example. In short, he is a man willing to be a good citizen.

Bay St. Louis and the county lost such men last week. Their names: Lucas Pucheu, Jr., and Culbert Lee.

Suggestions?

Recently we have had two burglaries on the water side of Beach Boulevard, Marques's and Trapani's Barn. Earlier diBenedetto's and Bill's Dollar Store (then Olea's) were robbed. In each instance entry to the building was from the rear, the beach side.

What should the city or the county do about it?

One suggestion we have heard would be to have a walking patrolman on the beach area at night rather than the area being covered by the patrol car. To us this is asking for special consideration beyond the need.

Another suggestion is that the city install flood-lamps to light the area, the idea being for one in the area of diBenedetto's, one back of Trapani's and one in between. This would be of value, it seems to us, if, but only if, the property owners kept the weeds and trees to the beach side trimmed up.

Have you any ideas?
Tell City Hall.

NEWSPAPER WEEK VISITORS - Elna Cuevas, Sea Coast Echo advertising manager, far right, explains details of the hand fed folder used by the paper to students of Bay High's journalism class yesterday. This week is national newspaper week and students from St. Stanislaus and St. Joseph's visited the newspaper's plant today.

John A. Thigpen

John Alexander Thigpen, 85, Hancock County native, died Oct. 11 in Crosby Memorial Hospital, Piquette, where he had been confined for two months. Final rites were last Thursday from McDonald Funeral Home with burial in Turtledove Cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Leatie Keith Holly Thigpen; two sons, Otto and Clyde Thigpen, and four daughters, Mrs. Elvira

Mrs. Adolph Depree

Mrs. Laura Martha Depree, 65, widow of Adolph Depree, died Tuesday at her home at Kila. Daughter of the late Oliver and Eliza Williams Selph, she was a lifelong resident of the county and a life member of the American Legion auxiliary.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ollie Varnado of Kila, Mrs. F. G. Beebe of Cincinnati, O.; a son, Ray Depree of Bay St. Louis; a brother, Justice of the Peace A. Frank Selph, a step brother, C. C. Whitchard, both of Kila, 10 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were Wednesday morning from Church of the Annunciation at Kila with burial in Bayou Coco Cemetery. Pallbearers were Hugh Sanford, Eddie Simon, Cleveland Wyatt, J. W. Bilbo, Kenny Bilbo and Fred Beebe.

Pucheu...

will take over the business.

In addition to serving as grand knight of the KCo in 1958, he was active in the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, disabled American Veterans, Sportsman's, Sideline and Shamrock Clubs and pitched on Retnik's softball team during the last season.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pucheu; a sister, Mrs. R. E. Tomlinson of Reno, Nev.; a brother, Chas. O. Pucheu of East Clinton, Mich.; and his grandmother, Mrs. Clara Gray of Gulfport.

Pallbearers for the funeral were Harry Pavre, Frank Trapani, Sidney Mamiert, J. C. Pucheu, Carius Pucheu and William Adams, Jr.

Mrs. Tomlinson and her husband, Staff Sgt. Tomlinson and their two children were delayed in arriving here for the funeral when the private plane bringing them here from Stead Air Force Base in Reno developed engine trouble over Texas. They were forced to land at the new air strip at Crockett, Tex., for repairs which the townspeople speeded and got here Monday afternoon.

Lee...

Son of the late Thomas and Mary Lee of Lumberton, he is survived by his widow, the former Miss Eunice Cuevas of Nacogdoches Crossing, one daughter, Mrs. Edward Thrash, first grade teacher at North Central; three sons, Larry of Lumberton, Ezell, teacher in Sun, La.; Thomas Lee of Houston, Tex.; one sister, Miss Mildred Lee of Lumberton; three brothers, Clifton, Cullen and Leo Lee, all of Lumberton, and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Lee attended Pearl River Junior College and received his bachelor of science degree in education from Mississippi Southern College. He was principal of the old Lumberton School for nine years until its consolidation with North Central in 1959.

In addition to his administrative duties he taught junior high English and history.

He was a deacon, choir leader and Sunday School teacher of Lee's Chapel No. 2, member of the Mississippi Education Assn., Hancock County Teachers Assn., Assn. of Elementary School Principals and a trustee of Southwestern Baptist College at Laurel.

Pallbearers, members of the North Central faculty, were Superintendent Leo Rouse, J. C. Harrell, high school principal, Dr. J. Martin, Elvin Lee, Claude Renfro and Telf Shaw.

Baths

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Bush, 630 S. Reginald Bush, Jr., seven pounds, 12 ounces, born Oct. 11 at Hancock General.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dubois, a daughter, Rita Lynn, born Oct. 13 at Hancock General Hospital weighing seven pounds, four ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ladner, a daughter, Charlotte Ann, seven pounds, 12 ounces, born Oct. 16 at Hancock General Hospital.

Meditation Planned

Main Street Methodist Church will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, for personal meditation, called A Day Apart. The occasion is sponsored by the Women's Society for Christian Service.

Cuevas, Mrs. Winnie Cuevas, Mrs. Stella Thigpen, all of the area, and Mrs. Margie Eustman of Pinole, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Bourgeois of Poplarville were weekend guests of Mr. Bourgeois' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bourgeois.

Mrs. Rosie Bourgeois had as her guests last week Mr. and Mrs. William Guardia of New Orleans. On Wednesday Mrs. Bourgeois her guests and Henry Nacasse motored to Purvis to visit Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fayard, and son, Kenny and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fayard, and daughter, Lorraine, spent Sunday in New Orleans with Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Fayard and other relatives.

Burleigh Entertains

A delightful luncheon and canasta party was given Thursday by Harold Burleigh who served canapés and hors d'oeuvres to the guests assembled, after which they served themselves at the buffet table centered with a huge platter of golden-red chicken halves, barbecued as only Nettie's husband, Harold, can do. As high score-holders, Mrs. F. Foegele, Mrs. J. Borden, Mrs. A. Landry, Rae Cape and Helen Bordages were presented prizes. Others attending were Mesdames I. Richmond, J. Robertson, R. Rasmussen, E. Dennis, B. Ladner, J.
Baker, A. Robertson, B. Merchant, E. Dantagan and G. Bordages.
At the last week the William Tonglets were called to New Orleans by the death of Mrs. Tonglet's brother-in-law, Herbert Tonglet, husband of her sister, Rita Fortier Stern, to whom we extend sympathy.

The fragrance of good food was wafted in on the air as Al Landry served the good food of the other day. Under a glistening white napkin lay a tray of meat balls, spaghetti, sauce with sprinkling of cheese and salad—because Ruth heard Mrs. G. wasn't feeling well.
Edith Dantagan how many grandchildren they now have she almost afraid to quote — 14 in 10 years! "But she had a full of their pictures to prove it—it seems only a year or so those three daughters of theirs were school girls—so fast the youngsters grow!

Cake And Candles

Happy Birthday to little Donna Marie Ladner on her fourth birthday. She is anxiously awaiting the homecoming of baby brother, Garcia, Jr., who is still in incubation in a N. O. Hospital. . .
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klein, Jr., will celebrate on the 29th of October on the 31st. Happy Birthday parties for two children; a group helped Paul Rannik celebrate on Wednesday on Sunday Robin Jean Garcia celebrated with all the children to make children happy.

Mr. H. Brockman entertained in the solarium of her Beach home recently. A group of members and friends of Waveland Methodist Church. . . During the evening refreshments of chicken sandwiches, cake, coffee, petit fours and other delicacies were served.

Her well wishes are extended to Mrs. Ida Jourdan, who has been suffering in Mercy Hospital in N. O. for a week or two. . . and to Mr. Johnson who is just able to get about after an attack of the flu.

It is always a surprise and pleasure to receive word from readers and friends, as was a letter this week from Rev. J. Bonneville of Baton Rouge to thank this column for birthday greetings sent him 3 years and 10 Sept. 24, and hopes he and Mrs. Bonneville—to whom he pays beautiful tribute as having been such a loving helping throughout their married life—may celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Dec. 13. . . He continues: "We are about to buy a home in the midst of friends whom I had known for 30 years. We miss our Lakeshore, Clermont and Lakeside friends though; please say howdy to them for us."

Meaning of Howdy

Howdy is a reminder on that word Howdy. It so impressed the author, Albert Rieker who came from Germany and had never before, as being so friendly and straightforward a greeting he painted so realistically to resemble rope on the 12 x 12 timber of his entrance gate on Poinsett St. I discovered only recently it wasn't the real McCoy. . . In their home Albert, wishing to be proficient in English, never tried to teach wife Lillian German. On her vacation there last year she became so impressed with his family and their language she now spends her spare time learning the tongue of her late husband's family.

Bride-Elect Honored at Piazza Home

The Main Street home of Mrs.
Piazza was the setting Sunday evening for a linen and linen shower at which she and Mr. Walter Turcotte, Jr., and Mrs. Sidney Bourgeois entertained in honor of Miss Linda Schwender, bride-elect of Mr. Gustavella of New Orleans.

The reception rooms were decorated with white mums and eryery. The refreshment table was covered with an imported cut-work cloth and centerpiece with two tier white cake decorated with white bells and with a miniature umbrella, flanked on either side by a bowl of pink punch and trays of white petit fours.
Light from the chandelier over table was a white net umbrella. Favors of umbrellas filled white party mints were given to guests.

Miss Schwender wore a two-piece tulle dress of green fashioned with a straight and box jacket and a white veil. She was presented a corse of white carnations.

Mrs. Jacob Schwender, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Frank Schwender, mother of the groom-smen, and Mrs. Walter Tur-cotte, maternal grandmother of Miss Schwender, were all presented with corsages of white carnations.

Guests were Mrs. Edward Fort, Misses Jerry Pointe and Ann Caruso of New Orleans, Mesdames Ducre Bourgeois, Avril Jenkins, Ann Lanier, Bill Cobb, Harry Meyer, Miss Wiedman, Billy Zimmerman, Fred Bourgeois, Walter Bourgeois, Effie Mazarakis, Mrs. Ladner, Sylvia Ladner,
John Scaffie, Chris Ladner,
C. J. Piazza; and Misses Mary Margaret, and Mrs. Turcotte, Aggie Bourgeois, Mary Toni Ladner, Debbie Piazza, Charlotte Piazza and Mrs. Turcotte.
